February 24 – March 9

And commentary on the prevalent energies for March

In January we saw the theme of the public at large repositioning themselves, re-thinking their core beliefs, restructuring their core beliefs and their belief systems. At least questioning belief systems they subscribe to that were somehow imposed upon them, whether by family in upbringing or by imposition of a religion or government or authoritative power.

This month in February, we saw people in stand-offs against authority, against governments, against ruling powers, ruling authorities, largely based on fatigue and frustration of living within the confinement of oppressive concepts, oppressive theologies, oppressive laws and systems of rule that have essentially being imbalanced for decades and in some areas of the world for centuries, or longer. People were breaking out of their confinement, whether the confinement was institutional, or mental, or theological in nature. Whether the confinement was philosophical, physical, psychological, or had a color of consideration to be slavery (as in the case of the IRS bomber). Of course there are many people who will privately admit they feel taxes are a form of slavery. We saw a successfully executed attack by the Maoists against armed forces in India as they continue their decade's long struggle to represent the disenfranchised, the dispossessed. We saw a stand-off with Toyota as decades of trust were questioned, as the motives of an automobile manufacturer so huge and so longly held as the standard for safety, value and quality came under damaging scrutiny. I know we can question the motives for senatorial intervention here with the Government of the United States now being the biggest shareholder in GM, but you get my meaning. But this is a very visible and public example you can all relate to. We also saw major Labor Class movements across Europe like the strikes in Greece that resulted in clashes with riot Police causing cancellation of all incoming and outgoing flights country wide in Greece.

People were beginning to test their new beliefs, inspired by their newly formed philosophies. It was a month of regeneration/re-birth/renewal/repositioning and upheaval.

Now, we come to March which will bring the beginnings of organizing themselves into groups, integrating into networks of those who are like-minded. Seeking and finding and joining groups and networks of other's who share their newly formed value systems, their newly formed core values. These are the beginnings of the formation of rebellious organizations and yes we will also see the sting of rebellious groups that are more developed than the others. Rebel groups who have been organized and are prepared for forward action, open hostility, war or acts of war and terrorism. Groups that are now capable of striking out against what or who they feel is the oppressor. These events will manifest this month of March 2010 and they will make headlines. These are acts of revolution. This is also part of the struggle of the change of rule from the age of Pisces to the age of Aquarius. This is simply another phase in the Precession. Yes, the Precession does apply to the Zodiac, the zodiac symbolizes the precession and we can use the zodiac to monitor and explain certain events that are indeed regarded as a power struggle between the gods themselves. Take that for what it's worth to you, and I can only point you in the direction of the work of people like Zeccharia Sitchin and Lawrence Gardner to begin to understand what I'm talking about if you're not already familiar with it. There are masters of these ancient and scholarly studies and I recommend Sitchin and Gardner as some of the most sober teachings I've ever encountered.

So watch carefully for these energies to manifest in March because they will be bizarre to see I think, they will be violent in some cases and they will be shocking, dramatic, intriguing, innovative, some will be intellectually stimulating, some will be outright revolutionary. But they will be visible in the headlines.

Pluto in an 11th house Capricorn in March sets the stage for all of this...the Birth or Resurgence of Rebellious/Rebel Organizations making trouble for Governments/Ruling Powers/Authority for the entire month of March. This dangerous window will be a dominating energy for the entire month.

Major concerns in March (starting right now Feb 24)

As the Moon moves toward a 7th house Virgo and opposes a 1st house Uranus in Pisces we'll see major change and explosive change, news, and stressful events involving

National Health

We've already seen: Town of Mossville, Louisiana – towns people dying of toxic contamination from nearby chemical plants for an indeterminable period of time. Cancer and other inflammatory diseases associated with toxicity.

Armed Forces

We saw yesterday, Iraqi prime minister Nuri al-Maliki to reinstate 20,000 officers formerly of Saddam Hussein's Bathist army.

Dramatic News involving

Education Facilities

A Tacoma, Washington teacher was shot and killed in parking lot outside of Birney Elementary School.

In Colombia there is a story about a man who is essentially a Bookmobile using burros to carry books to children in remote villages. This is significant.

Get ready for the coming Full Moon February 28

The window for Full Moon energy has already opened so we'll begin to see Major Earthquakes 6.0+/Severe Weather/Nature's Destructive Forces

My prediction was:

Major Earthquakes/Possible Tsunami/Major Disturbance in Ocean's Depths

7.0 Earthquake near Okinawa, Tsunami warning quickly followed

Today we say an Earthquake measuring 8.8 causing more than 147 deaths and the toll is still rising unfortunately. Multiple earthquakes in that area have followed ranging from 6.0 to 7.0. Resultant Tsunami warnings span from Hawaii, California, and Alaska to Japan and Russia. At my last check 5.0 earthquakes are occurring in record numbers. USGS can barely keep up with the activity and we're now seeing quakes on the Mid-Atlantic Ridge, Argentina, in Southern, Central, and Northern California, and in Alaska. A 2.7 was just recorded in the Greater Los Angeles Area, a 3.4, even a 4.1 in California now. I've never seen anything like this. Could this even be a volcano that has erupted off the Chile's coast? Sure The dominating energies behind this prediction is the approaching Full Moon's energy opening a window that includes Virgo energy and Virgo is in the 8th house according to my full house method of astrology. The ruler of the 8th house is naturally Pluto and when you involve Pluto with the energies of Uranus and Pisces (a driving force behind this with the Moon) there is always potential for volcanoes.

Also, Pluto in an 11th house Capricorn in March sets the stage for the Birth or Resurgence of Rebellious/Rebel Organizations making trouble for Governments/Ruling Powers/Authority for the entire month of March. This dangerous window will be a dominating energy for the entire month.

The Predictions

Get ready for the coming Full Moon February 28

The window for Full Moon energy has already opened so we'll begin to see Major Earthquakes 6.0+/Severe Weather/Nature's Destructive Forces

Expect the coming month of March to continue to bring the world more disastrous precipitation as Pisces enters the 1st house. Pisces is ruled by Neptune, Lord of the Seas, Lord of the Oceans and Water. As I mentioned before, Pisces is also in a condition of Mutual Reception with Aquarius, meaning they are each accepting the others ruling planet. So, Pisces in the 1st house with Uranus will bring shocking weather as Uranus rules the weather. Shocking changes in weather again folks.

With the Sun amplifying the energy of Pisces, Lord of the waters, and the Lunatic Moon in 6th house of domesticated animals, could this be a reason for the Black/White - Yin/Yang - Friend/Foe Orca/Killer Whale attacking and killing one of it's handlers today at Sea World? The Moon affects all things on Earth. All animals are affected by the Moon...All beasts are subject to the energy of the ruling planets. A lesson that shows we must respect planetary conditions that rule the beast when dealing with animals that are half friend and half wild. The 6th house this month is also where we have been experiencing the stinging Tail of the Dragon.

Pluto opposing the Moon right now sets up conditions for:

Feb 24 - March 9

Dramatic news about Education Facilities/Stock Market/Children/Possibly Mass Death

Feb 24 - March 9

Major Earthquake/Possible Tsunami/Major Disturbance in Ocean depths/Seas/Water

Major concerns in March (starting right now Feb 24)

As the Moon moves toward a 7th house Virgo and opposes a 1st house Uranus in Pisces we'll see major change and explosive change, news, and stressful events involving

National Health, Armed Forces, Animals, Labor Class, Unions War/Peace and Open Hostility Treaties/Agreements Broken

Also, Pluto in an 11th house Capricorn in March sets the stage for the Birth or Resurgence of Rebellious/Rebel Organizations making trouble for Governments/Ruling Powers/Authority for the entire month of March. This dangerous window will be a dominating energy for the entire month.
