

My Star Report

May 27, 2010 Full Moon Video

The Moon becomes full in Sagittarius today at 4:07pm PDT in the 8th house – expect to see a deep need for power struggle, money, deep purification – purging – cleansing – detoxification (gulf oil disaster thingy) because the Moon in the 8th house is squaring Pisces in the 11th house – Pisces is ruled by what? Neptune, right? Lord of the seas/oceans/waters/sea life. We might normally expect Jupiter to provide protection since Jupiter is in the 11th house right now, but Jupiter is opposed by Saturn right now creating difficulty for Jupiter. This opposition makes for poor judgment, bad luck, misfortune...so there's no protection there...no luck.

To make matters worse, Saturn is Retrograde, so there's an added gravitational tug compounding that energy, which brings up another issue. The issue of a dangerous cross right now as the Moon opposes the Sun in the 2nd house directly. While Jupiter and Saturn oppose each other from the 11th and 5th houses respectively. These lines of opposition create a cross that is electromagnetically activating the entire wheel of the zodiac and amplifying all hard aspect, and we're going to see this further aggravate the crisis between North and South Korea. In the 5th house we find Virgo there with the Retrograde Saturn and North Korea is a Virgo country. North Korea set articles of declaration on September 10, 1948. South Korea is right next door in the 4th house which is occupied by Leo right now. South Korea is a Leo country having set articles of declaration on August 15, 1948. By the way, these dates make for the Tail of the Dragon being in Scorpio for both countries. So there's the rub for South Korea – Mars is in Leo right now, in the 4th house opposing Neptune in the 10th. In mundane astrology the 4th house represents both Disaster, the Sea (to name a few keywords there). Mars, the planet of war and weapons of war, Neptune (back to Neptune in the 10th) ruling the seas and vessels of the sea – the energy then is naval warfare and the obvious opportunity for war at sea for South Korea.

So all together we have the wheel of the zodiac activated by a cross of prevailing energy dictating poor judgment, deep need to exhibit power (for many reasons and in every conceivable way...keep that in mind...), displays of power...acts of war, aggressive behavior, forceful behavior, conflict, posturing, no protection or luck or wisdom from Jupiter...you get the picture. Now, add to this Uranus moving into Aries – Aries ruled by Mars of course, Uranus rules explosive change wherever it goes and Uranus very close itself to directly opposing Saturn, and Saturn of course influencing North Korea right now. Astrological conditions are also dictating the Libra country China in the 6th house right now to appear to the world as a powerful leader with political and military influence and strength. China will be embarrassed by North Korea if North Korea fails to respect China's command to stand down in this crisis and North Korea will reject this attempt by China to control it. It's a scary picture with grave possibilities while the full Moon is in the 8th house of mass death. The stage is set and the world is watching.

Email your questions to me at ken @ mystarreport.com. Until next time – Lusk – out.